As per the Government Order read above, the Kerala Vocational Higher Secondary Education State Service Rules and Kerala Vocational Higher Secondary Education Subordinate Service Rules (2004) was promulgated after following the procedures prescribed for promulgating statutory rules and notified in March 2004. Government had also initiated action for the preparation of the Special Rules in aided sector. Meanwhile, a large number of amendments were recommended by the Subject Committee, Curriculum Committee and the Teachers/Service Organizations. Several OPs and WPs were also filed before the Honourable Court for the finalisation of the Special Rules for aided sector as well as for incorporating the amendments to certain qualifications prescribed in the Special Rules and the Honourable Court ordered time limit directions to finalize the amendment proposals as well as the formulation of Special Rules for the aided sector.

Since the amendment to Special Rules as well as formulating rules are statutory functions, so many statutory procedures as laid down by Government are to be followed which are time consuming processes. However, Government in the meanwhile have followed procedures like discussions with the representatives of the Service and Teachers Organizations, meeting of Secretaries Committee etc. Since the further procedures like the consultation with the KPSC, scrutiny by Subject Committee etc. has to be completed.
